Dear Forum Attendees,

On behalf of the Rim Country Regional Chamber of Commerce and APS, it is with great pleasure that we extend a warm welcome to each of you to the Non-Profit Forum. This event serves as an invaluable platform for non-profit organizations within our community to gather, collaborate, and learn from one another. As representatives of organizations dedicated to making a positive impact in our community, your presence here today is a testament to your unwavering commitment to service and excellence. We recognize the vital role that non-profits play in fostering growth, resilience, and inclusivity within Rim Country.

We are honored to host this forum to support your endeavors. Throughout the course of the forum, you will have the opportunity to engage in insightful discussions, gain valuable information from industry experts, and forge meaningful connections with fellow non-profit leaders. Whether you are seeking innovative strategies for fundraising, exploring new avenues for community outreach, or simply looking to connect with like-minded individuals, this forum offers a wealth of resources and networking opportunities to help you achieve your goals.

We extend our deepest gratitude to APS for their generous support in making this event possible. Their dedication to empowering local communities aligns perfectly with the spirit of this forum. We are immensely grateful for their partnership. As we embark on this journey together, let us seize the opportunity to inspire, empower, and uplift one another in our collective pursuit of creating a brighter future for Rim Country as a whole.

Once again, welcome to the Rim Country Regional Chamber of Commerce Non-Profit Forum sponsored by APS. May your experience be enriching, enlightening, and filled with impactful connections.

Warm regards,

Andrew Strader
